Opportunity Rocks

- » Discover what your business can learn from real rock stars. Using a high-energy combination of music, audience participation and rock & roll history, Opportunity Rocks demonstrates how lessons from the world of rock & roll can easily apply to business with great success.

"Opportunity Rocks" uses music, audience participation and actual rock history to make its surprising point — even the most traditional businesses are similar to the most famous of rock bands!

Rhythms in Business

- » Drumming meets motivational speaking in this fun, interactive presentation. Audience members receive branded drumsticks and then follow Maestro Marvelless Mark as he "conducts" them in a drum symphony that ties in with your event. Whether it's "beating the competition," "drumming up business," general session drumming or the "rhythm of the marketplace," Marvelless Mark can tailor the presentation to your organization.

Find the Rhythm in your Business with Marvelless Mark's interactive drumstick presentation! It will have your attendees drumming up new business, beating the competition and discovering the rhythm of the marketplace.
